TOUR 1:
Munich's medieval old town

From Munich's beginnings in 1158 under Duke Henry the Lion to the modern history of National Socialism, Munich's city center has a lot to offer.

Where is the grave of Napoleon's stepson? Why is there a cannonball in the wall of St. Peter's Church? Where did Hitler found his party? And what is so special about the Viktualienmarkt?

These and other questions will be answered on the tour.

Duration: 3h   Price: 230,-€

TOUR 2:
The path of Hitler's Beer Hall Putsch

Hitler called Munich the capital of the movement. This is where he found his political friends and where he founded the NSDAP. On November 9, 1923, he made his first attempt to seize power in Germany by initiating the so-called Beer Hall Putsch. It was a failure. After the seizure of power, the Nazis celebrated the coup in Munich every year on November 9th. The tour starts in front of the Hilton Hotel Munich City where the Bügerbräukeller was once located. From here the tour heads towards the city center past the former Sterneckerbräu, where the first office of the NSDAP was located, via Marienplatz to Odeonsplatz, where the putsch was stopped. The tour ends at Königsplatz, which the Nazis used for their own purposes.

Duration: 3h   Price: 240,-€

TOUR 3:
Maxvorstadt – The vision of King Ludwig I heart and brain of Munich

Maxvorstadt is Munich's cultural and intellectual heart, blending history, art, and academia in a compact and vibrant district. Home to Ludwig Maximilian University (LMU), it also holds the Weiße Rose Memorial, honoring the student resistance against the Nazi regime. The stunning Ludwigskirche features one of the largest altar frescoes in the world, while iconic spots like Alter Simpl, the birthplace of Dadaism, and the historic Schelling Salon, frequented by figures like Lenin and Hitler, highlight its cultural legacy. The Kunstareal, with world-class museums and galleries, showcases the district's deep artistic roots, and Königsplatz, with its grand neoclassical architecture, stands as a testament to both cultural splendor and historical complexity. Maxvorstadt is a district where Munich's vibrant past and present converge, offering a rich tapestry of stories and sights to discover.

Duration: 3h   Price: 240,-€

TOUR 4:
Olympic site from 1972

The Olympiapark in Munich is a world-renowned landmark, blending modern architecture, history, and leisure. Built for the 1972 Summer Olympics, it features the iconic tent-like roof structures, a masterpiece of engineering and design. Spanning over 85 hectares, the park offers lush green spaces, a tranquil lake, and venues like the Olympiastadion and Olympiahalle, which continue to host sports, concerts, and cultural events. At its heart is the Olympiaturm, a 291-meter tower providing breathtaking panoramic views of Munich and the Alps. Today, the Olympiapark is not just a symbol of Olympic heritage but a vibrant hub for relaxation, entertainment, and exploration.

Duration: 3h   Price: 180,-€

TOUR 5:
Oktoberfest orientation
– Tipps, tricks and history

Oktoberfest in Munich is a world-famous festival blending tradition, beer, food, and entertainment. This tour is aimed at Oktoberfest beginners and people who also want to learn something about the history of the festival. As a native of Munich, I also pass on the tips and tricks you should know at the Oktoberfest. Show traditional rides and attractions that are only available here, such as the Teufelsrad (Devil's Wheel), Krinoline or Tobogan. And give recommendations on food you should try and beer tents that are worth a visit. So it's a two-hour introduction, after which everyone can have their own positive experience of Oktoberfest. Disclaimer: I cannot guarantee entry to tents, nor do I have reserved tables. This is an introduction and guide to exploring on your own later.

Available from September 22nd to October 2nd - Monday to Thursday.

Duration: 2h   Price: 300,-€

TOUR 6:
Christmas markets tour

Join me, as we explore the charm of Munich's Christmas markets. We'll start at the iconic Christkindlmarkt at Marienplatz, where tradition sparkles under the glowing Christmas tree, followed by the Schwabinger Christmas Market, showcasing artistic treasures and local creativity. Next, step back in time at the Medieval Christmas Market, where costumed vendors and old-world crafts bring history to life. We'll then visit the vibrant Pink Christmas in Glockenbachviertel, a colorful celebration of diversity. Our tour continues with the cozy Mondscheinexpress at Bahnwärter Thiel, blending industrial flair with holiday magic, and concludes at Winter Tollwood, a cultural hotspot offering international delights and seasonal surprises. The itinerary is of secondary importance on this tour. It's all about flowing with the Christmas spirit. I will point out special features and German Christmas delicacies at the Christmas markets and we can change plans as we go.

Duration: 4h   Price: 300,-€

DAYTRIPS and LAYOVER-TOURS

Daytrip 1: Daytrip to Augsburg

Augsburg, one of Germany's oldest cities, offers a captivating mix of history, culture, and architecture, perfect for travelers looking to explore beyond Munich. Founded by the Romans over 2,000 years ago, Augsburg boasts impressive Renaissance architecture, rich cultural sites, and a unique legacy as a prominent trading hub. The Fugger were the German Medici. The Fuggerei in Augsburg, founded in 1521 by Jakob Fugger the Rich, is the world's oldest social housing complex still in use. Designed to provide affordable housing for Augsburg's needy Catholic citizens, residents today still pay the same nominal annual rent of one Rhenish guilder, equivalent to about 0.88 euros. With its vibrant blend of history, art, and natural beauty, Augsburg is a hidden gem ideal for a day trip or weekend escape. I can customize this tour according to your requests.

ATTENTION: On Mondays most museums in Augsburg are closed! On Sundays, churches may not be fully accessible due to church services!

Duration: 8h   Price: 770,-€

Daytrip 2: Daytrip to Lake Chiemsee

Lake Chiemsee, often referred to as the "Bavarian Sea," is the largest lake in Bavaria, set against the backdrop of the Alpine foothills. Known for its natural beauty and historical significance, it has been a place of inspiration for centuries. The journey includes a ride on the Chiemsee-Bahn, a historic steam tram connecting the town of Prien with the harbor. From there ships provide transport across the lake to its two famous islands: ? Fraueninsel – A picturesque island with a historic Benedictine convent, charming fishing houses, and artisan workshops. The peaceful atmosphere and well-preserved traditions make it a unique cultural site. ? Herreninsel – The largest island, home to Herrenchiemsee Palace, built by King Ludwig II as a tribute to Versailles. Though unfinished, the palace showcases extraordinary.

Duration: 8h   Price: 650,-€

Airport-Layover Tour: Freising Discover the breathtaking cathedral and the oldest brewery in the world

Freising, one of Bavaria's oldest towns, just 20 minutes from Munich Airport! Perched on Domberg, the stunning Freising Cathedral, with an altarpiece by Peter-Paul-Rubens, offers history and breathtaking views. Stroll through the charming old town with its medieval streets and vibrant squares. Visit the world's oldest brewery, Weihenstephan, and relax in its beautiful botanical gardens, a perfect spot to enjoy Bavarian brewing tradition. Nearby, the Weihenstephan Gardens showcase stunning landscapes and botanical beauty. Optionally, explore the Diözesan Museum, home to one of Germany's finest church art collections. Freising is a hidden gem waiting to be explored! This tour is highly customizable. The 2 hours indicated are the minimum time required. If you have more time, you can extend it with museum visits or time in the beer garden.

Just ask for a customized tour!

Duration: 2h   Price: 300,-€